

AMESBURY'S BARTLETT MUSEUM

presents

RAISE THE ARM!!!

CIVIL WAR ENCAMPMENT

Sat. & Sun. - MAY 20th & 21st - 2006

Woodsom Farm - Lion's Mouth Road, Amesbury

FREE to Public!

Rain or Shine

11th MASS Vol. Infantry
New England Brigade
Various Freelance Reenactors

5th MASS Artillery, Battery E
Assorted Members - ANV
35th Virginia Cavalry

SATURDAY 10 am – 4 pm

ARMED FORCES DAY

- ❖ SILENT AUCTION
- ❖ Living History Presentations
- ❖ Regional Historical Info
- ❖ Period Artifacts & Replicas
- ❖ GAR Monument Ceremony

SUNDAY 9 am – 3 pm

HOMETOWN TOURIST DAY

- ❖ FREE MUSEUM TOURS
- ❖ Specialized Experts & Historians
- ❖ Drill & Weapons Demonstrations
- ❖ Period Poetry, Song & Ceremony
- ❖ Union Cemetery Ceremony

Federal Troops

Confederate Troops

Infantry – Cavalry - Artillery

Special Topic: Abolitionists of the Lower Merrimack River Valley
Garrison, Whittier, etc.

Bartlett Museum Exhibit -

“AMESBURY AT WAR: A Tradition of Service & Sacrifice”

Honoring all who have served and those who are presently serving our nation

Special Appearance: James Ballou World's Leading BAR Expert Featured on the History Channel

“All's Well That Ends Well”

— quote from recently vandalized 11th MASS Monument at Gettysburg

Amesbury's Bartlett Museum is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to the preservation of artifacts relating to Amesbury's rich heritage.

Contact: P. Jancewicz - Historicusrex@yahoo.com